WHAT IS NCCWSL?

NCCWSL is the National Conference for College Women Student Leaders. At this two and a half day conference you can:

- Choose from more than 50 workshops to attend.
- Meet and network with incredible role models as well as more than eighty graduate schools and employers.
- Gain the confidence and skills to return to your campus and community ready to take action!

SCHOLARSHIP OPPORTUNITY:

The AAUW Greensboro Branch is offering $700 competitive scholarships towards registration, meals, and travel costs to NCCWSL. These scholarships are offered to women students in the Triad who attend an AAUW Partner school, are in good academic standing and have at least one academic year left in their program.

SCHOLARSHIP APPLICATION:

Applications are due March 1st by 5pm. Each application must consist of the following:

- An email address of a faculty or staff member from your campus who has agreed to write a letter of recommendation.
- A written document(maximum 500 words) or video(no longer than three minutes) addressing the following prompt:

Why are you interested in participating in this program? What do you anticipate getting out of it? What do you plan to do with this knowledge on your campus (campus project, advocacy or informational video, conduct a workshop, other efforts, etc.)?

View application evaluation criteria and submit these materials at:

<http://bit.ly/1zupcQj>

Each Scholarship comes with the commitment to:

- Attend one 90 minute conference prep session.
- Attend the entire conference.
- Present a brief overview of your NCCWSL experience at an AAUW event.
- Use your skills to implement a project on your home campus.

For designing the NCCWSL flyer, kudos to Emalie Ashe , an undergraduate student at High Point University and participant in the 2015 NCCWSL
