BRANCH HISTORY

The Greensboro Branch of AAUW was founded in 1912 and has approximately 100 members, who continually seek ways to work toward improving the lives of all women through leadership and community service, including:

Education meetings for members on current events, topics, and issues important to women; Support for college and university partners in the Triad, including UNCG, NCA&TSU, Bennett College, High Point University. We welcome all educational collaborations.

Collaboration with community groups such as League of Women Voters, Commission on the Status of Women, Community Foundation of Greater Greensboro, YWCA, The Forge, Women’s Professional Forum Foundation, Women’s Resource Center, and Degrees Matter Programs for young women from middle school through college.

COMMUNITY SERVICE

Leadership development - Financial support to attend National Conference for College Women Student Leaders (NCCWSL)

Pay equity – WorkSmart and $tart$mart salary negotiation skills workshops

STEM education (science, technology, engineering, and math) initiatives that include Triad Tech Savvy workshops, IT Is For Girls, and Find Your STEM Conference for High School Girls.

ABOUT AAUW NATIONAL

Founded in 1881, AAUW is a nationwide grassroots organization of about 180,000 members.

Mission Statement

AAUW advances equity for women and girls through advocacy, education, philanthropy, and research.

Vision Statement

AAUW will be a powerful advocate and visible leader in equity and education through research, philanthropy, and measurable change in critical areas impacting the lives of women and girls.

Diversity Statement

In principle and in practice, AAUW values and seeks a diverse membership. There shall be no barriers to full participation in this organization on the basis of gender, race, creed, age, sexual orientation, national origin, disability, or class.

Through its nationwide network, AAUW opens doors for women and girls and influences public debate on critical social issues such as education, civil rights, and workplace equity.

AAUW sponsors community programs, publishes ground breaking research on women and girls, is one of the world’s largest sources of funding exclusively for graduate women students, and fights sex discrimination in all levels of education.
