It's a Saturday. So, it shouldn't be just another school day. Let's start at 9:30 and end by 2:30.

Purpose: to motivate and encourage high school students to set goals and establish a plan to meet those goals

Cost: $10 covers lunch and all amenities. Registration form allows payment by PayPal/CreditCard, check, or request for fee waiver.

REGISTER NOW: <https://greensboro-nc.aauw.net/techevents/>

Location: Joint School of Nanoscience and Nanoengineering, 2907 E Gate City Blvd, Greensboro, NC 27401

Skills shared: how to write a 3-year action plan to accomplish your academic, extracurricular, and service learning goals. Examples of high school accomplishments will be presented in templates and resume format, as well as tips on navigating STEM courses and resources.

Activities: Poster sessions by upper high school and college women will display examples of STEM pathways. Tour the Joint School of Nanoscience and Nanoengineering to see the exciting research facilities, degrees, and achievements of this amazing local resource. Enjoy a pizza party networking lunch.
