$18.81 for Memberships for Students of Non-AAUW College/University Members

Undergraduates or degree-seeking graduates enrolled in full-time or part-time programs may join and renew at this rate through graduation.

Give a Grad a Gift:

<https://www.aauw.org/resource/give-a-grad-a-gift/>

AAUW members can gift one year of AAUW national membership to as many recent college graduates as you like at no cost to them or you. (National members, you can do this too!)

We all know that the future of our organization depends on today's graduates, so we need you to introduce AAUW to them. Here's how you can share AAUW with recent grads.

1. Identify the recent college or university graduates in your networks.
These graduates can be people you know or strangers! You could gift AAUW memberships to the entire graduating class of your local college or university — in fact, we encourage it. Anyone who has completed their undergraduate degree in the past two years is eligible to receive one free membership from an AAUW member.
2. Collect their information.
You'll need to know the mailing address, phone number, email, and alma mater of each of these future AAUW members.
3. Fill out our handy form!
Voilà! Welcome, new AAUW members. Hello, future of AAUW.

It's a win-win situation. Giving a grad the gift of AAUW membership costs nothing for you or for them — and is rewarding for you both!

GREENSBORO BRANCH HISTORY

The Greensboro Branch of AAUW was founded in 1912 and has approximately 100 members, who continually seek ways to work toward improving the lives of all women through leadership and community service, including:

Education meetings for members on current events, topics, and issues important to women;
Support for college and university partners in the Triad. We welcome all educational collaborations.

Collaboration with community groups such as League of Women Voters, Commission on the Status of Women, Women's Professional Forum Foundation, YWCA, The Forge, and Women's Resource Center.

Programs for young women from elementary school through college.

ABOUT AAUW NATIONAL

Founded in 1881, AAUW is a nationwide grassroots organization of about 180,000 members.

Mission Statement

AAUW advances equity for women and girls through advocacy, education, philanthropy, and research.

Vision Statement

AAUW will be a powerful advocate and visible leader in equity and education through research, philanthropy, and measurable change in critical areas impacting the lives of women and girls.

COMMUNITY SERVICE PROJECTS AND PROGRAMS

STEM education for elementary through high school girls: Science, technology, engineering, and math initiatives that include Triad Tech Savvy workshops, IT Is For Girls summer day camp, and Find Your STEM Conference for High School Girls.

Leadership development for college women - Financial support to attend the annual National Conference for College Women Student Leaders (NCCWSL)

Pay equity – WorkSmart and $tart$mart salary negotiation skills workshops

Women in Non-Traditional Careers WINc – financial support for women who complete the 12-hour skills training at The Forge, an adult makerspace offering welding, blue print reading, computer design, metal working, and other training which could be prerequisites for careers in advanced manufacturing, automotive, aviation, and related fields.

Donors and volunteers are needed for these and other programs benefiting women and girls in the Greensboro Community. Contact committee chairs or officers listed in this brochure.

Diversity Statement

In principle and in practice, AAUW values and seeks a diverse membership. There shall be no barriers to full participation in this organization on the basis of gender, race, creed, age, sexual orientation, national origin, disability, or class.
